Spiral Scarf

This fun and easy scarf can be knit either fat or skinny, by adjusting the amount of stitches you cast on, and you can determine if you want it long or short. The pattern is multiples of 11, you will add to that whatever amount of stitches you want for the border on each end. For the scarf pictured above, I cast on 33 stitches and added three at each end for the border, which I knit K,P,K. The scarf will roll a bit, so you can either block it when you are done, or I used a damp cloth and my steam iron to get it to lay flat. Again it is a chic looking scarf, but very easy to knit.

Determine if you want a skinny or fat scarf and CO the correct amount adding equal stitches for left and right border.

I knit 1-1/2" of straight knitting, (the garter stitch) to match the 1-1/2" on the hat with the flat brim. I like to place a marker after the border stitches when I begin, and just before the border stitches at the end of the row, to remind me to knit border stitches.

- Row 1: K border sts, place Marker, Sl 1, K1, PSSO, K6, YO, K3 repeat to Marker placed before border stitches, k border stitches.
- Row 2: K border Sts, transfer marker, P stitches to marker, transfer marker, K border Sts.

Repeat Rows 1 and 2 for desired length of scarf, remember to knit the same amount of rows for the end of the scarf as you did at the beginning of the scarf.
